Suspects Sought in Motorcycle Theft Ring July 8, 2010

Jacksonville Police have issued warrants for the arrest of four men wanted for felony conspiracy and motor vehicle larceny.

On the evening of May 20, 2010, the suspects were in the Puller Place Apartment Complex in the Carolina Forest area of the City when a Jacksonville Police Officer on proactive patrol pulled into the parking lot of the complex. The suspects dumped two motorcycles in the roadway, abandoned the U-Haul they were driving and fled the area. The abandoned motorcycles were reported as stolen from the Liberty Crossing apartment complex.

The Jacksonville Police Patrol Division officers were able to provide vehicle registration for several suspicious vehicles in the area. Jacksonville Police Detectives used this information as part of an intensive investigation leading to the four suspects. They are:

Cedric McKeith, 23
102 Joe Powell Lane, Jacksonville, NC

Amon Knowlin, 24
249 Columbus Road, Georgetown, SC

Tremaine Grant, 28
87 Royal Pines Drive, Georgetown, SC

Kevin Duncan, 31
12 Apricot Lane, Georgetown, SC

The Police Department has requested that anyone that may have information the incident or suspects to contact the Jacksonville/Onslow Crime Stoppers at 910-938-3273 or Detective David Miltier at the Jacksonville Police Department at 910-455-4000. Crime Stoppers of Jacksonville/Onslow County offers rewards of up to $2,500 for information leading to arrest.
